(To be included as agenda item in March Council Meeting)

3261. Correspondence- Electric Vehicle Charging – Reply from Gordon Anderson, Head of Highways and Engineering, Unity Partnership

Cllr. Battye said that he was astounded that OMBC should spend millions on a new school and yet would not spend a few thousand installing charging facilities on the site.

Cllr. Knotts and Curley agreed and Cllr. Curley said that the recipients of the letter need to include Cllr. Jabbar (OMBC)

Cllr. Al- Hamdani said that it was an abdication of responsibility and that OMBC should be demanding from TfGM that EVC points are installed.

It was resolved unanimously that the Chair would respond strongly to OMBC and other appropriate parties.

3262. Civic Ball

The Chair to address councillors regarding support.

The majority of Councillors will attend

3263. Chairman's Charity

Future Events.

The Chair will circulate an updated events list to all councillors and asked for their support.

3264. Dawson's Field.

Cllr. Knotts explained that the local community group at Austerlands had requested to plant trees around Dawson's Field. The scheme was an agenda item at a previous Assets Management Committee and is recommended by the members for Council to approve.

The scheme was approved unanimously.
